

The Daily Courant.

Tuesday, January 16. 1716.

the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 2.

Berlin, December 28.

Stralsund being surrendered, the Nobility make great Entertainments and Rejoysings. 'Tis expected that the King of Prussia will be at Potsdam on Monday, and here on Tuesday. His Majesty has made a Present of 1000 Ducats to M. Vleertman for his good Service during the late Siege. Three several Saxon Exiles have passed through this City, one to Dresden, one to Great Poland, and the other to Landau. We understand that Duke Maximilian of Brunswick Lunenburg who is at Vienna, takes great pains to obtain the Bishoprick of Osnabrug, but without any appearance of Success. The Magistrate of that Country have taken upon themselves the Government, to take care of it for 90 Days from the Death of the late Bishop, at which time, according to the Canonical Rule, a new Bishop must be elected. In the mean time we understand that the Noblemen and the Towns all declare for Duke Ernest Augustus and that the Canons too, who are the Electors, are the same way disposed, so that the Election of Duke Ernest Augustus is not at all doubted of.

From the Hague Courant, dated Jan. 10.

Hamburg, Jan. 3. This Day in the Forenoon the Count de Crossly arrived here from Rodock, and took up his Lodging at M. Poullin's the French Resident; and 'tis understood that he will tarry here some time and wait for Orders from his Court. The Danish Major-General Dalwig is also here, being provided with Danish Passes, and going from Copenhagen to Sweden, to give an Account of what passed in Pomerania since the King's departure, and to carry the Capitulation of Stralsund. All things now are quiet, the Armies being returned to their Winter-Quarters. The King of Denmark not only confirmed to the Inhabitants of Stralsund their Priviledges, but also promised them further Favours. His said Majesty arrived two Days ago at Oldeslo, and Yesterday at Rensburg, and this Night is expected at Hadersleben, pursuing his journey with all Speed to Copenhagen. And we hear the King of Prussia is arrived at Berlin.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 14.

Hamburg, Jan. 7. There was a Report that the Swedes had put Relief into Wismar, but it proved to be only that about 300 Swedes who fled from Rugen in small Boats came to Wismar with some Provisions, but not so much as to afford any considerable Relief to the Place. We have certain News from Sweden, that the Queen Hedwig Eleonora, Widow of Carolus Gustavus, is deceased in the 80th Year of her Age. As also that the King has let the Senate know that he should not immediately come to Stockholm, being for weighty Reasons determined to tarry some time at Carelskroon, where, as also throughout all Sweden, great Preparations are making for an ensuing Campaign.

Hamburg, Jan. 8. We hear that the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel is returned to the Place of his Residence. Prince Francis of Danstadt, Second Son of the Landgrave of Hesse Danstadt, is dead of the Small-Pox.

Hague, Jan. 8. The Heer Buys, who has been at the Court of France in the Quality of Extraordinary Ambassador of this State being returned home, was this Morning to wait upon the Penfionary M. Heinsius, and also upon the President of the Assembly of the States General. M. Cole, late Resident of his Majesty the King of Great Britain at Venice, is arrived here, and will speedily go over to England.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Jan. 11.

Hague, Jan. 9. M. Buys appeared Yesterday in the Assembly of the States General, and again this Day, when 'tis supposed he made a Report of his Embassy.

Hague, Jan. 10. The States General have published a Placart, which contains in substance, That a Report being generally spread, that some of those who hold Places and Offices under the States made no Difficulty of taking Presents, contrary to their Honour Conscience and Duty; of those who solicit for Places, or demand unjust Fees; and although they have not hitherto been able to obtain any just Proof of such Action, nevertheless for fear that the Innocent may suffer with the Guilty, and thereby the respective Colleges should draw upon themselves the publick Blame, it is found necessary to Ordain as follows. 1. For the time that is past, in case any one can make Proof within the space of one Year from the 10th of December last, before the Magistrate under whom it is, that during the Term of Ten Years last past, any one in this Assembly of their High Mightinesses, in the Council of State, or in any of the other Colleges respectively, Magistracies, and Tribunals, dependant on the Generality, or any of their Officers or Commissaries, high or low, have directly or indirectly taken Presents which they had not a Right to take, according to their Commission and Instruction, or what are forbid by the Laws of the Country, and liable to Punishment, the Denunciator shall have for Recompence 1000 Florins: And in case he has participated in the Present, or has himself given it, he shall be pardoned and exempt from Punishment, and the Present he gave shall even be returned to him. 2. For the time to come, none of the Persons abovementioned shall take directly or indirectly, any Present, great or small, which may be given to obtain a Place, or any Priviledge, Sentence, Remission, &c. or for discovering Secret Affairs, upon the Penalty of a real Fine proportionable to the Nature of the Crime, and being declared infamous and incapable of holding any Place in the Service of the Republick for the future. 3. None of the abovementioned Colleges, their Officers or Dependants, their Wives or Children, shall take any Present of those who have occasion to Demand or Prosecute in the respective Colleges, or take any thing for obtaining Places or Knowledge of Secret Affairs, upon the Penalty of not only losing their Places, Offices and Priviledges they already possess, but shall also be declared infamous, and incapable of holding any Place for the future. 4. Shall restore the Present four fold, and besides be liable to further Punishment, as is more amply declared in the said Placart. In consequence of his Placart the States came to a Resolution the 20th 20th of December, to cause a solemn Oath to be taken in the first Assembly of the New-Year, by all the Deputies of the Assembly of their High Mightinesses, ordinary and extraordinary, as also by all their Ministers, Officers, &c. to conform exactly to the Tenor of the said Oath, which was registered the 10th of December: Which Oath is to be then taken by the Deputies that are present, with Obligation to all others who shall be afterwards deputed, to take it in their Turn. They resolved moreover to desire the Council of State, and the Chamber of Finances of the Generality, to appoint a Day for taking the same Oath by themselves who compose the said Council and Chamber of Finances, as also by all the Ministers, Officers, and Commissaries, at this time, and for the future: Which Oath is also to extend, to the respective Colleges of the Admiralty, to the Councils of Brabant and Flanders, to the Magistrates and Tribunals depending on the Generality, to the Director of the East and West India Companies, to the Colleges of 17 and 10, and to the Chambers respectively; as also to all Counsellors established for the provisional Administration of the Succession of the late King William of glorious Memory; and that in the End they shall report to their High Mightinesses how this Ordinance has been executed in all the Colleges and Places abovementioned.

London, January 10.

Yesterday the Parliament assembled, and the King being come to the House of Peers, made a most gracious Speech, wherein his Majesty was pleased to intimate that he had some Grounds to believe that the Pretender is in Scotland.

London, January 10.

Yesterday South-Sea Stock was 93, 92 three quarters, to 93. Bank 126 to 125 three quarters, India 134 one quarter to 134. African 17.

Not Afted this Season.

By His Majesty's Company of Comedians.

At the Theatre-Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Tuesday, being the 10th of January, will be presented the Tragedy of Macbeth. The part of Macbeth by Mrs. Mills, Macduff Mr. Wilks, Banquo Mr. Booth, Lady Macbeth Mrs. Porter. With all the Decorations proper to the Play.

By the Company of Comedians acting under Letters Patents granted by King Charles II.

At the Theatre in Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, this present Tuesday, being the 10th of January, will be performed a Comedy call'd The Devil of a Wife. To which will be added the full New Comic Masque, call'd The Mountebank; or, The Country Lark. With several Entertainments of Dancing by Monsieur de la Gardie, Mr. Thurmond, Mr. Shaw, Mrs. Bullock, and Mrs. Croft. Particularly a New Dance, call'd The Morris, composed by Mr. Isaac; and at the Request of several Masters performed by Monsieur de la Gardie and Mrs. Bullock.

If any Person that saw the Ship George, Captain Snape, at Lisbon: (The Ship arrived there the 2d of October 1712, and departed thence the 20th of the same Month, two Days before Admiral Baker sailed from Lisbon with his Squadron bound Home:) Will apply to Mr. John Fletcher at his Office in Exchange-Alley, London, he shall be gratified to his satisfaction for his Trouble and Pains.

Dropt last Week, a Black Pocket-Book with a Silver Lock, with several Island Bills and other Memorandums. Whoever brings it to the Swan Tavern at Billingsgate, or to the Bell Inn in Coleman-street, shall have half a Guinea Reward, as being of no Use but to the Owner. Payment being Hop'd.

Deserted out of Col. Pulteney's Company in the Coldstream Regiment of Foot-Guards Andrew Colebatch, a Glover, his Father and Mother keeps a Glover's Shop in Fuller's-Race in Holborn: Whoever can secure him, or give any Account of him, (such as he may be secured, to the Colonel aforesaid,) Living in Little-street by Lecher-fields, shall have Two Guineas reward, or if he will return to his Colours again in five Days, he shall be pardoned.

Several Pieces of Timber have been cast up near at Chertsey, some of them being New and without Marks, are supposed to have been lost from below Bridge: Any Person making out their Property to them, may have them again, by applying themselves to Mr. Muckley, Bailiff of the Manor, at his House in Church-lane in Chertsey, they paying the Charges.

Lost about a Fortnight ago from the Bell Inn in Bell-yard near Temple Bar, a fine Liver-coloured Spaniel, with four white Feet, white Breast and Neck, with a White Collar on, which was engrav'd Mr. Tho. Boyton, Gen. Com. E. Coll. Ball, Oath 1714. Whoever brings him to the abovementioned Inn, shall have 5 s. reward, and no Questions asked.

Taken out of a House in King's-Golden-Square, about the middle of December last, by a Common Bail of Red-velvet Robes with Coronet and Sword and Belt, a Suit of Blue laced Cloaths, a blue Velvet Coat and Breeches, a Brocade Waistcoat, and 3 Yards of rich Gold fringed Cloth, which belonged to the Waistcoat, a pair of rich Gold fringed Slippers, a Canvas Waistcoat with Gold Button-holes and several Buttons, a Danish Table-Cloth, 3 Dinner Table-Cloths, 3 Dornets of dark Napkins, and 3 Dornets of diaper Napkins, 1 Drinking Table-Cloth, a Dornet of Diaper Towels, 4 pair of Holland Sheets, and 4 pair of Pillow Cases, 4 pair of coarse Sheets for servants, 1 pair of Yellow Canvas Window-Curtains, a pair of striped Window-Curtains, a Pair-Glass with a Walnut tree Frame, the Cornice of a Blue Canvas bed, with a Red Case Quilt and 3 Blankets, 1 pair of Window-Curtains of Blue Canvas, 1 Blue and Red Canvas, and Blanket, a fine head Grave and shew with Ruffles of the same Lace, and a plain Holland Shirt. Whoever can give any News of the same, to Mr. George Middleton, Goldsmith, in the Strand, so that they shall be recovered back by the Owner, shall have 5 s. Reward for the whole, or proportionable for any part thereof.

Taken up under Ludgate, a Pocket-Book with some Notes of Value. If the Owner will come to Mr. Ch. Phipps, Bookseller, at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Pauls Church-Yard, describing the Book and Things, and paying the Charge of a Gratuity, may have it again.

To be Sold at a very reasonable Rate fine Town Cloths finely gilt and painted, little the worse for wearing, hold with fine Blue Cloth, with a whole Glass before, on 10 Glasses, Springs and Crane, and every thing complete. To be sold off at Mr. Cockburn's, a Hofer, at the Golden Cock, opposite to Newin, Charing-Cross.

To be Lett,

Eighteen Acres of Land in Ilington, on the South Side of the Way, over-against Canbury-House, bounded by Mr. Prince's at the Crown in Ilington, or at Mr. Wm. Flinn's, a Striver, in Chancery-lane, and also two Vaults in Denmark-Street, Enquire at Mrs. Popple's in Denmark-Street, or at the Office of the Chair and two Chairmen in Hog's lane near Denmark-Street.

A Catalogue of very valuable English Books, consisting of the best Modern Divinity, History, Miscellany, Poetry, Plays, Travels, Voyages, Mathematics, Roman, &c. Newly bound, and of the very best Editions. Which will be sold by Auction, at the Fire-Office Coffee-house on Snow-Hill, against St. Sepulchres Church, this Day, the 10th Instant, beginning every Evening at 5 a-Clock, and will be continued till all are sold. By Samuel Illidge, Bookseller, under Searle's Gate, Lincoln-Inn Lane, where Catalogues may be had gratis; also of Mr. Humphreys at the Dolphin in St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr. Richardson at the Corner of Whitechapel near the Royal Exchange; Bookellers; at Steel-Coffee-house in Broadstreet; and at the Price of Sale.

Tobacco, Sweet-Scented, & Hogheads will be put up to Publick Sale by the Candle, at the Crown Coffee-house behind the Royal Exchange, in Threadneedle-street, on Tuesday, the 12th Instant, at 3 a-Clock in the Afternoon: Which is to be shown open at Parker's Gardens in Haydon-Yard, near the Navy, till the time of Sale, where Catalogues are to be had.

A Catalogue of very valuable English Books, consisting of the best Modern Divinity, History, Miscellany, Poetry, Plays, Travels, Voyages, Mathematics, Roman, &c. Newly bound, and of the very best Editions: Which will be sold by Auction, at Tuxford's Coffee-house within Aldgate, this Day, the 10th Instant, beginning every Evening at 5 a-Clock, and will continue till all are sold. By Tho. Richardson, Bookseller, at the Royal Crown in Little-Britain; where Catalogues may be had gratis; also of Mr. Humphreys at the Dolphin in St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr. Walker against the Royal Exchange; Mr. Mount on Tower-street; Mr. Stevenson under Aldgate Church; Bookellers; at Kempling's Coffee-house the Corner of Wood-lane, Frochurh-green, and at the Price of Sale.

This Day is Published,

The OCCASIONAL PAPER. Number II. The Character of a Protestant. Sold by R. Kitchin in New-Corner. Price 4 d. Where may be had The Occasional Paper, Numb. I. An Essay on Bigotry. Price 3 d.

This Day is Published,

An Ode on the Birth-Day of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. To the Princess. To the Earl of Chesham on his being created Duke of Newcastle. Amherst and his Nightingale. By Mr. Welford. Printed for Jacob Tooton at Shakespeare's Head over-against Catherine-street in the Strand.

This Day is Published,

A Companion for the Grand Festival of the Christian Church, or the Lord's Day: With Forms of Prayer and Praises for the Assistance of private Devotion, and Directions for the more devout Attendance on the publick Worship of God, according to the Liturgy of the Church of England. Being a Supplement to Mr. Nelson's Companion for the Fasts and Festivals, by Francis J. Churchill, at the Black Swan in Peter-Mother-Lane.

This Day is Published,

Military and other Poems upon several Occasions, and to several Persons. By an Officer of the Army. Printed for the Author, and sold by J. Brown at the Black Swan without Temple-Bar. Where may be had The Cave of Poetry, a Poem in Imitation of Shakespear; and Poems and Novels in Italian Temple, 26.

To Morrow will be Published,

An Historical Account of all the Treason and Atrocities of High-Treason, from the Beginning of the reign of King Charles the First, Chronologically digested. With material Occurrences for the better illustrating thereof. The Life of Alexander at large. To which are added, The dying Speeches or Papers, left by the suffering Persons. Edited for A. Bettesworth, in Peter-nether-row, by W. Lewis and J. Brown, without Temple-Bar, and Tho. Woodward in Fleet-Street. Price 3 s. 6 d. 2 s. 6 d. 1 s. 6 d.

THE